MISS INDIAN ALABAMA 2007

Commendation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, American Indian history and culture are an integral part of Alabama's history and culture; and

WHEREAS, today our American Indian population remains vibrant and active in Alabama, and

WHEREAS, our nine states recognized tribes carry forth to present day their Indian history and culture through their many festivals and gatherings held annually through the state; and

WHEREAS, it is with great pride that on November 18, 2006, the first Annual Miss Indian Alabama Competition was held at the State Capitol Auditorium where Jessica Anderson, Echota Cherokee; Kalie Godwin, MaChis Creek; Audra Oliver, United Cherokee Ani-Yun-Wiya Nation; Megan Rolin and Megan Young, Poarch Band of Creek Indians competed to represent Alabama's American Indian people:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Riley, Governor of Alabama, do hereby commend

Miss Megan Young
2007 Miss Indian Alabama

for her representation as a Goodwill Ambassador for all Indian people in Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 15th day of December 2006.
